COMMUNITY EVENTS FUND

Purpose:

The Community Events Fund is designed to assist the delivery of events that create social connections; support our creatives and improve the liveability and well-being of our residents.

These events must be open to the public and have broad community appeal.

Council will consider highly events that:

- Celebrate our community and the Dubbo Region's unique culture and identity
- Are engaging and entertaining

Before you complete this application you must read the guidelines, terms and conditions located:

<https://www.dubbo.nsw.gov.au/community-and-groups/events-hub/event-assistance-program>

Key guidelines:

- Your event is taking place within the Dubbo Region LGA prior to 30 June 2025.
- You have $20M Public Liability Insurance (and $20M Product Liability Insurance if applicable).
- Your event is not-for-profit.

Funding of up to $3,000 can be applied for to:

- assist with fees and charges associated with hire of Council venues;
- undertake event marketing [activity to build awareness of the event with aim to drive attendance]
- purchase entertainment (eg artists, performers, musicians etc) or assist with event logistics (eg staging/audio/seating)
- Please note: If you are holding your event on public land or a Council venue, this funding application does not constitute an approval to stage your event and a subsequent booking. Please contact Council's Event Unit on 6801 4122 to arrange appropriate documentation. Please visit Event Organisers Toolbox - Dubbo Regional Council \(nsw.gov.au\) for more information.
